ABSTRACT

Listed in this bibliography are 136 resource materials in the University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP) Library. The books, periodical articles, magazines, newspapers, and audio-visual materials are about Chicanos. Entries are arranged alphabetically by the author's or editor's name or by title when there is no author. General bibliographic information, the call number for books, and volume number and date for periodicals are given for each entry. A short abstract is included for some entries. Subject and co-author indexes are provided. Research aids and services and other publications available at the UTEP Library are also listed. (NQ)

FILMED FROM BEST AVAILABLE COPY

This bibliography was compiled to facilitate research in the field of Chicano Studies and is intended to be a guide to select items.

This edition contains 136 new book and periodical article entries. These cover subject matter which had not been covered in the previous editions. The subject index was expanded to include new subject headings and more subheadings for easier access. Effort was made to include more work by Chicanos.

The first two editions of this bibliography were done by Ken Hedman, Assistant University Librarian, and were entitled MEXICAN AMERICAN BIBLIOGRAPHY.

MUCHAS GRACIAS to Tony Piña, a young and talented artist, for allowing us to use his 'Eagle Knight' drawing on the cover. GRACIAS, also, to the Educational Research Project of El Paso for all their help.

All book and periodical article entries are arranged alphabetically by the author's or editor's last name or by title when there is no author or editor. The entries have been enumerated consecutively from 1-453. The numbers in the subject and co-author indices refer to these entries.

The entries give general bibliographic information (author, title, etc.) and include the Call Number for books and volume number and date for periodicals. Some entries also include a short abstract of what is contained in that work.

In using this bibliography, it is suggested that you make use of the subject index in the following page. For intensive research, consult the Card Catalog and the indices mentioned in page 58 (RESEARCH AIDS AND SERVICES) under the subject heading MEXICAN AMERICANS. For assistance, consult any of our librarians who will be more than glad to be of service to you.

PART I: BOOKS AND PERIODICAL ARTICLES

1 Acuña, Rudolph. THE STORY OF THE MEXICAN AMERICAN; THE MAN AND THE LAND. New York, American Book Co., 1969. 140 p. illus. (301.45372/ac93c).

Cultural understanding and appreciation are the goals of this history of the Mexican American in the Southwest. Suitable for late elementary and secondary school students, this work includes biographical sketches of prominent Mexican Americans.

2 Adkins, Patricia A. AN INVESTIGATION OF THE ESSENTIALITY OF IDIOMS AND FIGURES IN THE EDUCATION OF BILINGUAL STUDENTS. University of Colorado, 1966. 111 p. (Microfilm/291/77).

3 Alcaraz, Ramon. THE OTHER SIDE. New York, 1850. 457 p. (Microfilm 436).

Notes on the history of the war between Mexico and the United States. Translated from the Spanish edition, with notes by Albert C. Ramsey.

4 Alessio Robles, Miguel. LAS DOS RAZAS. Mexico, Editorial Cultura, 1928. 309 p. (JHM/327.72/A125d).

5 Allen, Steve. THE GROUND IS OUR TABLE. Garden City, N.Y., Doubleday, 1966. 141 p. illus. (331.67/A154g).

6 Allen, Vernon L. PSYCHOLOGICAL FACTORS IN POVERTY. Chicago, Markham Publishing Co., 1970. 392 p. (301.4523/A154p).

Consists of recent theoretical and empirical developments in behavioral science that apply to poverty. A number of papers published here for the first time.

7 Alurista. FLORICANTO EN AZTLAN. Los Angeles, Chicano Cultural Center, University of California. 1971. 100 p. (PQ/7297/A58/F5).

In 100 poems the poet expresses, in several languages, some of the feelings of the Chicano experience: nostalgia, love and anger.

8 Alurista and Gonzale[illegible], [illegible] Ed. EL OMBLIGO DE AZTLAN. San Diego, California Centro de Estudios Chicanos, San Diego State College 1971. 92 p. (P[illegible]).

A series of p[illegible] express pride in a Mexican heritage, the clash of the pres[illegible] struggle and the destiny of La Raza.

9 Alvarez, Salvador. "Mexican-American Community Organization." EL GRITO (Vol. 4, No. 3. p. 68-77) Spring 1971.

Lists in chronological order the Chicano organizations that have emerged since 1880.

10 American Council on Race Relations. MEXICAN-AMERICANS; A SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY. Chicago, The Council, 1949. 7 p. (R/323.1272/ Am35m).

11 Anderson, Amelia Brooks. THE NUMBER ABILITIES AND CONCEPTS OF SPANISH SPEAKING CHILDREN WHEN THEY ENTER GRADE ON IN AN ENGLISH SPEAKING SCHOOL. El Paso, 1944. 90 p. (JHM/378.764/ C686).

A thesis presented to the faculty of the Department of Education of UT El Paso. Examines a program for testing Mexican American students on 'ideas and concepts that are fundamental in number instruction'. Both Spanish and English were used in this study.

12 Arciniega, T.A., Dr. PUBLIC EDUCATION'S RESPONSE TO THE MEXICAN AMERICAN STUDENT. El Paso, Texas, Innovative Resources Incorporated, 1971. 27 p. (LC/ 3701/A7/Educ.).

According to the author, the present approach to the 'Mexican American Problem' is such that "to accept the Mexican-American, society dictates that the youngster must first be 'de-Mexicanized'". p. 3.

13 Arciniega, T.A., Dr. THE URBAN MEXICAN-AMERICAN: A SOCIO-CULTURAL PROFILE. New Mexico State Univeristy, University Park. 23 p. ERIC (ED 050 887).

Describes the different types of Mexican-Americans. Analyzed are: the 'rural novice' or 'immigrant novice', the barrio dweller, the 'transitory individual', and the assimilate or bi-cultural individual. Suggests that action programs for urban Mexican-Americans begin by reinforcing basic Mexican American values.
